Jones Road 2005 Sauvignon Blanc

The Age Sunday Life June 2006

Toasty, nutty oak influence adds extra interest & colour to this Sav Blanc. Its texture is smooth & fine with more buttery depth than most of its peers.

Huon Hooke's Top 100 New releases

A deeper, more complex savvy than most of its kind . . . adding richness & roundness, & some nutty aromas. Its finely textured & has a lingering aftertaste.

A modern style elegant chardonnay, subtle stone & citrus fruits with clever use of fine oak . . .
. . . a real discovery.

Jones Road 2004 Pinot Noir

WINESTATE Special Edition December 2005

At the high priced end the judges were mightily impressed & even suggested that we might be approaching Burgundian Village/ Premier Cru quality at half the price.

A violet crumble like nose, tight redcurrant fruit underbeath layers of gamey chocolate. A sweet mouthful of cherry fruit, silky tannins & soft spicy oak.
